Czech Dreams - Imprints and Recollections

General introduction

In 2011, the Concentus Moraviae Festival offers you a chance to dream, to return to your childhood for a while and to remember the moments in which your lifetime cooperation with the dramaturg Aleš Březina, the leading Czech musicians will illuminate in very intimate programmes what musical impulses stirred up their musical passion.

The traditional main ambition of the organisers is to fill the unique historical venues of 19 festival towns with beautiful music in great interpretation and to present you, the visitors, unforgettable experiences or even to inspire your new dreams.
