GÜLSİN ONAY PLAYS CHOPIN

The 33rd Izmir International Festival opens with a recital given by Gülsin Onay on Saturday, May 25th, 2019 at AASSM. Onay was honoured by the Polish Republic with a State Merit award for "Best Chopin Interpreter". Expressing her feelings about Chopin, Onay has used the following words, "Chopin... he is my natural soulmate. A composer who gives a voice to my heart that embraces the piano without my hands. The creator of the works that I would take along with me if I was stranded on a deserted island... He has the power to let my fingers sing, even on the worst piano, with the things that he unintentionally makes me feel, with his melodies which make me feel happy or make me cry. With his music reflecting immortal emotions to the universe which will survive for centuries. My engagement with Chopin was officially recognized on the day when I was awarded a State Merit by the Polish Government. Every time when I play his works, I feel very grateful for being a pianist". Gülsin Onay will present a special selection of works for her recital "An Evening of Chopin with Gülsin Onay".

BIG BAND OF THE FUTURE

The Jazz Orchestra of the Concertgebouw (JOC), one of the most impressive Big Bands of the Netherlands, is described by many as "the Big Band of the Future". Established in 1996 as a New Concert Big Band, the JOC has achieved a top position among the world's most popular jazz orchestras since then. JOC will perform works from their latest album, Crossroads, at a concert to be held at DEU

Sabancı Culture Palace on Tuesday, 28th May 2019 under the direction of their conductor Rob Horsting.

REBEL GIRL OF PASSION: CARMEN

On Thursday, 30th May 2019 at 21.00, the 33rd International Izmir Festival is going to offer a rather different experience for dance and opera lovers. Carmen will be presented in the style of Flamenco this time, based on one of Opera's most popular works of literature adapted by Bizet from the story by French writer Mérimée. The De Sangre Y Raza Flamenco Company, one of today's best Flamenco companies, will present their version of Carmen, the rebel girl of passionate love, featuring Juan Manuel Prieto's choreography.

PORTUGAL'S VOICE: ANA LAINS

Ana Lains believes that Fado is the best way to express her feelings and share them with the audience. She will present her latest album "Portucalis" at the concert on Tuesday, June 11th, 2019 at AASSM. Ana Lains takes part in the 33rd International Izmir Festival through the support of the Portuguese Embassy. She expresses her thoughts on Portucalis with the following words: "The mission of this album is to pass the following message: this record is dedicated to all those who like people, who love to be people of their country and who understand that life is a mission. It is dedicated to all who understand that this mission is part of the place where we are born."

SOPRANO /BAS ALLATURCA "NEW INTERPRETATIONS"

The 33rd International Izmir Festival will host its audience at the Kızlarağası Inn, one of the most beautiful historical places of Izmir, on Wednesday, June 12th, 2019. "Bas Allaturca" was established by Nihat Demirkol together with Bass Alparslan Mater in 2017, and "Soprano Allaturca" together with Soprano Oya Ergün followed these in 2018. They join forces as "Soprano/Bas Allaturca" for the first time and exclusively for the 33rd International Izmir Festival. Soprano/Bas Allaturca will enliven the beautiful June night with their "New Interpretations".
